

Whose Artwork is on that Water Bottle Label? It could be yours!

Contest Theme:

The Victorville Water District (VWD) has been providing safe and reliable drinking water to our customers for over 50 years. Our water source is diverse and precious and the future water supply depends on improving our water use efficiency. The artwork should depict an investment in our future water supply and how we need to protect our rivers, streams and ground-water basins to make sure we have an adequate water supply for future generations. Contestants are encouraged to visit the Victorville Water District website at www.victorvillewater.com for more information about the District.

About the Contest:

The Victorville Water District will bottle its water and provide this water at community events and functions the District hosts. In order to involve the community in the bottling of its water, VWD is sponsoring a "Water Bottle Label Contest" for 6th through 12th grade students. The artwork that is selected will appear on the VWD water bottle for approximately one year.

Artwork Elements:

- Students are encouraged to use strong brilliant colors
- The artwork must include the name of the District: "Victorville Water District"

Contest Rules and Guidelines:

1. Artwork must be no larger than 8.5" x 14"
2. Only horizontal images will be accepted
3. Use as little writing as possible
4. Artwork must be original (No trademark or copyright material, i.e. Snoopy, etc.)
5. Attach the entry form (below) to the back of the artwork.

Judging:

A panel of judges will evaluate the art based on the following criteria:

- How well the art expresses the contest theme
- The artist's creativity and originality
- The artist's neatness

Awards:

The Winner will be recognized at a Victorville City Council Meeting, and their artwork will be featured on the VWD water bottle for approximately one year.
