

Public Service Announcement

The City of Victorville's 2012 Youth Advisory Committee is presenting a Spring Festival on April 7, 2012, from 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. at Hook Park, 14973 Joshua Street, in Victorville.

The Youth Advisory Committee is made up of students from the area high schools that serve Victorville residents:

There will be a vendors' fair and opportunity drawing for the adults and bounce houses and games for the kids. There will be a small fee for the bounces and the games. All proceeds will go to the Phoenix Foundation Charity serving the High Desert.

Tickets for the opportunity drawing are $1.00 each and many prizes have been donated by local businesses and generous individuals. The Youth Advisory Committee is currently looking for contributors and donations of prizes, money, or candy. Checks should be made out to: BEARS.

The City of Victorville Recreation Division will be presenting the annual Spring Egg Hunt for children up to 12-years of age. Pre-sale tickets will be sold for $3.00 at Hook Community Center. Tickets on the day-of-the-event will be sold for $5.00, so purchase your tickets early. For the egg hunt, checks should be made out to: City of Victorville.

For more information, please call Hook Community Center at (760) 245-5551.